

Why Are We Not Winning More Souls For The Lord?

Why Are We Not Winning More Souls For The Lord?

- Too many today seem to have lost the joy in their heart that they first had when they obeyed the gospel, and they therefore fail to share this joy with others. (Acts 8:39; Romans 12:12; Philippians 4:4)
- Too many today seem to have become very comfortable in their own environment, and they have become lukewarm in their service to the Lord. (Revelation 3:15-17, 19)
- Too many today lack diligence, and a fervent zeal for winning souls. (Romans 12:11; Titus 2:14, 3:8)

Why Are We Not Winning More Souls For The Lord?

- Too many today seem to be too busy in seeking their own desires, and give no thought or time in seeking the lost. (Luke 8:14-15; 1 Corinthians 9:19-23)
- Too many today want to leave the task of seeking the lost to the preacher or someone else, and they therefore fail to do their part in winning souls for the Lord. (2 Timothy 2:24-26; James 5:19-20)
- Too many today seem to not be fully convinced of the power that is in God's all inspired word to be able to change lives. (Romans 1:16; Hebrews 4:12)
- Too many today seem to not be convinced of the fact that those not following God's specific will are really lost. (Matthew 7:21-27; Mark 16:15-16; 2 Thessalonians 1:8)
